any news when it goes up for the mac and rainbow dlc as well. This DLC is nice. Its a great DLC to play if you're an Arrow fan :)

Hope there will be a CW's The Flash and Supergirl DLCs and new Arrow DLC as well :). EDIT: The Arrow DLC showed up for Mac, about two weeks after PC, with no announcement or explanation I could ever find. So I've changed this to "recommend," since it is a fun level, and we Mac users can actually play it now. But, still, a little communication from Steam or TT would have made the situation much better.

ORIGINAL REVIEW: I bought the base game and the season pass to play on my Mac. The base game is great, and the at-launch DLC was wonderful as well (though the levels are a little short). All of those were available for PC and Mac, and there certainly was no indication that later DLC packs -- which I've already paid for, in the season pass -- wouldn't be available for Mac, as well.

If there's a delay in this one hitting Mac, send a notice to everyone who's played Lego Batman 3 on Mac. If TT decided to stop porting the DLC to Mac as of this one, say so clearly. Putting out a DLC pack for one platform when paying customers already exist on multiple platforms is just rude and dumb.. if you are a fan of the tv show like me.. believe me you will love it. Very nice level, with humorous dialogues in particular during the intro, which turn this level in a parody of the TV show. If you liked the base game you will like this new level, if you like the TV show you'll enjoy this dlc even more. Sadly this is a very short dlc, the story last no longer than 10 minutes, however these are ten epic minutes.

good new characters i like arrow the most but it has a short story with only one mission. My name is Oliver Queen. I've been stranded on an island with only one goal.

Survive.Survive,and one day use a proper toilet again.... I also bought the base game and the season pass for my mac. Loved the first few dlc but apparently this one isn't for mac. It's terrible that we weren't warned that not all the season pass dlc would be for both mac and pc. costs 3 bucks takes 3 minutes to complete. I love the story. It's very simulaire to the real series and the characters are nice. it look nice, level design look great and worth the price.

Arrow fan must buy!. This is my favorite DLC pack for the whole game! The best part is that Stephen Amell voices Green Arrow in the game and records extra dialogue for this level. The level is nice, although a bit short(as all of DLC levels are, apparently), it has a nice design though. Adds Arrow himself, Felicity, Diggle, Mysterious Archer, Arsenal, Slade Wilsonand Island Goon.

If you have seen Season 1 and you enjoy the TV series, you will be satisfied.

Now the question is - CW's The Flash level when?
